Services:

Francisco Cuadra offers income tax software, training, electronic filing and bank products to Income Tax Practitioners as well as new participants in the electronic filing industry. There are many advantages to file your clients returns electronically, specially the opportunity to offer your clients bank products such as Refund Anticipation Loans (RAL) and Preferred Electronic Refund Check (PERC). For you these services increase you clientele and increment your revenue from electronic filing fees, therefore creating a viable business. Electronic Filing is very profitable addition to your business, which also provides competitive advantages over other business that do not offer electronic filing services.
